Scouting. It calls upon us all to give our very best. No other program prepares young people to become successful adults the way Scouting does. The bonds of friendship. The importance of personal responsibility. The promise of leadership that lies within.

More than ever, today's Scouting is an essential and relevant part of growing up. It brings boys and girls together in an environment in which they can truly explore their potential, marching side by side down a path of discovery. And with every step along that journey, their sense of purpose and place in the world becomes all the more clear.

Since 1910 Scouting has provided values, fun, adventure, excitement, opportunities and heroes.

These assets of Scouting empower young people through character building, leadership opportunities, citizenship, outdoor education, career education, community service and healthy lifestyles; in other words... Values That Last A Lifetime.

In a recent outcome study, local volunteers responded on the impact Scouting had in their Scout lives:

98% of parents said their Scouts were more respectful toward adults and peers.

95% of Scouts have learned how to be more self-reliant.

98% of Scouts learned how to be trustworthy and honest.

98% of Scouts said Scouting had taught them to be more responsible.

98% of parents said their Scouts gained problem-solving skills.

93% of Scouts plan to go to college.

100% of Scouts gained new skills that will help them succeed in life.

But all that has and will be achieved through Boy Scouts depends on you: friends, parents and alumni. Your generous gift to Friends of Scouting ensures that the Greater Alabama Council can continue to keep Scouting alive and thriving in our community making a real impact in the lives of young people.
